

INTERPRETATION BENCHES

INTERPRETATION BENCHES

Our range of timber benches offer an interesting solution for discreet but distinctive interpretation. Decorated benches are attractive but sturdy and can provide a real feature of interest in a reserve or public open space.

With a combination of routing and sandblasting interpretation can range from simple text through to complex and detailed maps and illustrations. Full colour printed graphics can be incorporated into the backrests.

Shelley can create all artwork including illustrations—we have a large library of species illustrations designed for the sandblast process. Alternatively, we can work from your own designs. Please call us to discuss design options.

Items on this page show our popular bench styles but we can also work to your own bespoke designs.

A timber bench produced in cedar with sandblasted natural history illustrations on the backrest. Shelley have a large library of wildlife illustrations suitable for sandblasting.

An oak memorial bench with text routed on the backrest. These benches can also include brass or printed plaques.

A simple seat with informally splayed legs. The seat can be decorated with text or graphics.

An oak bench, produced with a shaped back support and routed text.

A wooden bench produced in cedar and complete with a WI logo sandblasted on the backrest. When photographed this bench had been out about 5 years which gives a good indication of weathering.

A bench with backrest, produced in oak and complete with a selection of natural history illustrations sandblasted on to the backrest.

A great example of a decorated backrest with a verse and a selection of wildlife illustrations.

A timber picnic table designed to allow wheel chair access. The backrest included sandblasted text and graphics.

HOW TO ORDER

Please call us to discuss your project. Prices will depend on the graphics you require and how detailed they are. Having chatted through your project we will prepare a quote. We can accept instructions to proceed by email and normally raise an invoice when the benches have been despatched.
